VERSE 1

Everything I loved is now behind me
My heart says go ahead turn around
This darkness will meet me in the morning
Will I ever see the sunshine through the clouds
I found myself walkin down Lot's road, all alone

CHORUS

Then I heard the voice of GOD say
I will never leave you my love will carry you on
Even in the storm and struggles, I'm here
You are never all alone

VERSE 2

Have you found yourself down that same road
Feeling like nobody understands
Walking around aimless in the pain
Trying to figure out how to live again
You don't have to do this by yourself, all alone
