

DON'T MISS EVERYTHING

Writers: Johnathan Bond/Zac Clifton

Publisher: HIS Choice Music/BMI

VERSE 1

Flying from LA , back to Nashville With a layover in El Paso
Don't you know I'm in a hurry, to go from here to there
I'm a busy man, I guess nobody cares

VERSE 2

Now) this old man, sitting right beside me Said son, are you this busy all the time?
Now it may not be my business, but here's some good advice
If you're not careful, time will pass you by

PRE-CHORUS

Won't you slow down, take a moment and see

CHORUS

The beauty of all God's creation
The valley, the mountains, the sea
Just feel wind blowing, hear the birds as they sing
Look into the blue skies, feel the sand beneath your feet
Won't you slow down, take a moment and see
Don't find yourself too busy
Don't miss everything

BRIDGE

Kids go from 3 years old, to 25
Hair turns from dark, and fades to grey
Hands that once were strong, will become weak
It's not too late, take the time to see
