Sunrise paints the eastern sky
A brand new day unfolds
But struggles linger in my heart
Of stories not yet told
My path dark and steep
The journey was long and hard
But in my soul there's a quiet strength
That only comes from God
That only comes from God

He's my Lord he's me Lord
He's brought me through every time
Though every storm
He's my Lord he's my Lord
I know he will keep me
Keep me from all harm
He's my Lord

I know I'm not the only one
Who struggles through the night
Fighting demons from my past
As tears flow from my eyes
You don't have to fight alone
When troubles come your way
Call upon the name of God
Stand with me and say
Stand with me and say

He's my Lord he's my Lord
He's brought me through every time
Through every storm
He's my Lord he's my Lord
I know he will keep me
Keep me from all harm
He's my Lord
