

SHOW SOMEBODY

Johnathon Bond / Corey Lee Barker

Woke up right on time still runnin' behind
So much to do in this crazy world of mine
Sometimes it's easy to forget - there's more to life than that Lord help me please - to remember today's not all about me

It's a real good day to show somebody some love
What a beautiful day to lift somebody up
Why don't we take just a little more time
To push out the darkness and let love shine
Like an answered prayer from above
TODAY'S THE DAY TO SHOW SOMEBODY SOME LOVE

Don't wanna miss one single opportunity
In everything i do and say - let'm see you in me (i wanna)
Give a hug if somebody needs one - Be a friend when I need to be one Remind me to be - who you want me to be
